

Amanda B. Fuller
Madison Environmental Group, Inc.

25 North Pinckney, Suite 310
Madison, WI 53703

Education

- M.S. University of Wisconsin-Madison. Land Resources. January 2002. Thesis, "Large-Scale Prairie Restoration: Four case studies and recommendations for the Badger Army Ammunition Plant"
- B.S. Denison University. Environmental Science. 1995. Summa cum laude.

Experience

- 2002 – Madison Environmental Group, Inc., Madison, WI.
Program Manager. Manage projects including construction and demolition waste recycling, brownfield redevelopment, and neighborhood-based Environmental Action Teams.
- 1998 – Sauk Prairie Conservation Alliance, Prairie du Sac, WI.
Coordinator. Organize education, advocacy, and ecological restoration activities at the Badger Army Ammunition Plant.
- 2001 The Nature Conservancy, Baraboo, WI.
Restoration Ecology class team project. Developed a restoration and management plan for the Baxter's Hollow Preserve in the Baraboo Hills, incorporating recreation, restoration, and preservation of rare species in Otter Creek.
- 2000-2002 Ecological Society of America, Madison, WI.
Program Assistant. Organize symposium, oral, and poster sessions for ESA's annual meeting using a customized database of 2000+ abstracts.
- 1999 Natural Resources Conservation Service / Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts, and Letters, Madison WI.
Working Sessions Coordinator for the "Building on Leopold's Legacy" Conference.
- 1998 The Restoration Group, Inc., Boulder, CO.
Field technician. Established wetland and woodland restorations on mining mitigation and other sites; Controlled exotic plant species at sagebrush restoration sites.
- 1997 International Crane Foundation / Neenah Creek School, Baraboo and Briggsville, WI.
Environmental Education Project Leader. Surveyed sandhill crane behavior and rural land use; Tracked and mapped radio-equipped birds; Monitored vegetation in prairie restorations; Planned and executed a ¼ acre prairie restoration on school grounds; Developed an environmental curriculum at Neenah Creek School integrating ICF's crane and prairie research.

Volunteer

- 1997 – The Sauk Prairie Conservation Alliance, Prairie du Sac, WI. Organize education, advocacy, and ecological restoration activities at the Badger Army Ammunition Plant. Recruit and lead volunteers in prairie and savanna restoration activities.
- 1997 – Aldo Leopold Foundation, Baraboo, WI. Prairie and savanna restoration.
- 1998 – International Crane Foundation, Baraboo, WI. Prairie and savanna restoration.
- 1998 – Prairie Enthusiasts, Sauk-Empire Chapter. Prairie and savanna restoration and restoration planning for prairie remnants.